

KOBUS DEKKER OCCUPATIONAL HYGIENE CONSULTANCY (KDOHC)

We have Occupational Hygiene Assistant positions available at our following operations:

- East Rand Operations (Brakpan area).
- KDOHC Potchefstroom office.

KDOHC is an experienced Mine Occupational Hygiene consultancy working throughout South Africa.

The positions available are permanent positions of which one will be permanently based in the Brakpan area and one in the Potchefstroom area. Shift work is not the norm, but some surveys require time spent on site during the night for night shift monitoring.

Requirements:

- Registration with the South African Institute of Occupational Hygiene (SAIOH) on an Occupational Hygiene Assistant level OR alternatively a Practical Certificate in Mine Environmental Control from the Minerals Council.
- Code 08 Drivers License.
- Own transport.
- Basic computer literacy in Microsoft Office.
- Medically fit.

Tasks required include:

- Calibration and preparation of occupational hygiene monitoring equipment and sample media.
- Conduct Occupational Hygiene surveys (physical and chemical hazards).
- Prepare reports for surveys conducted.

CV's can be mailed to tania@kdohc.co.za. Shortlisted candidates will be informed by 9 March 2026.